

Above, a 'Space' dining table and 'Logo' lamp, by Armani Casa, with rock crystal quartz artworks (1968/1979), by Andrea Cascella (Brun Fine Art, Milan) and a bronze soldiers sculpture (c.1934), by Arturo Martini (Walter Padovani, Milan)

Opposite, a pair of 'Rondo' armchairs, by Armani Casa, with Flavia Teste Rosso marble sculpture (2012), by Vanessa Beecroft (Galleria Lia Rumma, Milan) and glazed terracotta artworks (1968/1970), by Guerrino Tramonti (ED Gallery, Piacenza)

TALENT SHOW

Defined by its use of precious materials, refined finishes and innovative textiles, Armani Casa creates furniture with an enduringly elegant aesthetic. We've paired pieces from its collection with important Italian art and rare artefacts, from the Renaissance to the 21st century, showcasing the very best of the Made in Italy ethos

Photography BEPPE BRANCATO Creative direction NICK VINSON

Opposite, an 'Open' sofa, 'Ninfea' table and 'Logo Mini' lamp, by Armani Casa, with (behind sofa) Kleenex (1974), by Luciano Bartolini (private collection, courtesy Robilant + Voena, Milan), and (on table) terracotta sculpture (1963), by Michelangelo Barbieri (Dei Bardi Arte, Arezzo), and bronze sculpture (1969), by Agostino Bonalumi (Robilant + Voena, Milan)

Above, a 'Smart' chest of drawers, by Armani Casa, with Madonna and Child wax high relief (18th century), by Girolamo Ticciati (Walter Padovani, Milan), Intreccio di Situazioni (1969), by Armando Marrocco (Robilant + Voena, Milan), and Concetto Spaziale, Cratere (1968), by Lucio Fontana (Robilant + Voena, Milan)

Above, a 'Riesling' bar cabinet, by Armani Casa, with terracotta lioness sculpture (19th century), by an unknown artist (Brun Fine Art, Milan), and Untitled (1959), by Paolo Scheggi (private collection, courtesy Robilant + Voena, Milan)

Opposite, 'Camilla' desk and 'Logo Mini' lamp, by Armani Casa, with (on wall) Testa di Doge and Testa di Vescovo mosaics (both 14th century/Alessandra Di Castro, Rome) and (on table) Betelgeuse rock crystal quartz (1979) and Senza Titolo rock crystal quartz (1967/68), both by Andrea Cascella (Brun Fine Art)

For galleries and stockists, see page 169

